SOMETIMES A cold will not yield to ordinary remedies, because of the severe inflammation of the delicate lining of the tubes through which the air we breathe is distributed to the lungs. This condition produces Pain and Soreness, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Cough, Hoarse Fever, and a Spitting of Blood, Matter or Phlegm, finally exhausting the strength of the patient, and developing very serious disease. Dr. Jayne's Expecto-rant seldom fails to remove these symptoms, by relieving the lungs of all obstructing matter, and healing all soreness. Pleurisy, Asthma and Bronchitis are likewise cured by this standard remedy, and the reputation it has maintained for so many years affords the best guaranty of its merit.

Remorse and Suicide.
Harry R. Silsbee, a native Cincinnati-ian, and for some time past the book-keeper of S. W. Bard, and Secretary of Building Association No. 3, committed suicide last night in Sullivan's building, northwest corner of Ninth and Elm.

He has been very despondent for some time. Yesterday morning he borrowed a Col's revolver from a friend, Geo. W. Fulin, saying he intended to go over to Newport to spend the day. The discovery of the suicide was made by a room-mate of Silsbee's, Mr. Cyrus Beebe, who, on going to his room to dress in the evening, found the door locked. He assisted a boy to gain an entrance to the room through the transom, after which Beebe entered, and found his friend lying on the floor dead, with a bullet hole in his right temple.

The body lay on its right side, and from appearance, life had been extinct all day. The corpse was removed soon after to Hagib's, where the Coroner held an inquest, the jury rendering a verdict of "suicide by shooting."

The deceased was about thirty years of age, temperate in habits and of excellent character, and there is no good reason known to his friends which would lead to the act.

His parents are dead. The deed was done after mature deliberation, as is proved by the following notes, which were found in his room:

"I do this myself. I can not help it. I am weary with regret and remorse. I have been so for weeks. I can not longer bear this load. Good-by, all."

"HARRY R. SILS-BEE."

The following to "dear mother" is meant for his adopted mother, Mrs. John Hunt, the wife of the apple-butter man, who adopted both Silsbee and his sister, after their parents' death:

"DEAR MOTHER: I do not tell you that I was angry at you, I could not be angry with you. God bless you, always, who have always loved."

"YOUR ERRING BOY."

$50,000 will be paid for any Remedy which will cure Chronic Rheumatism, Pain in the Limbs, Back and Chest, Sore Throat, Insect Stings, Croup, Dysentery, Colic, Sprains, and Vomiting, quicker than DR. TOLMAN'S VEGETARIAN LINIMENT. Established in 1847; never fails. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park place, New York.

Fashions for Winter.

Through the politeness of B. S. Blake, corner Fourth and Elm, Agent for E. Butterick & Co., we have just received "The Delineator," a handsome Fashion Magazine, for December, illustrating the very latest European and American fashions for Ladies', Misses' and Children's Garments. Among them we would especially mention the Reception Costume, the Ball Costume, and the Walking Costume, with full descriptions represented by engravings; also Ladies' Princess Polonaise, Single and Double-breasted Cloaks, Basques with reversed fronts, Dolmans, Gored Jackets, Over-skirts, &c., besides a great variety of handsome styles for Misses and Children. In fact it contains all the latest fashions from Paris, London, Vienna, Berlin, and last, though not least, New York. It now seems to be a well-established fact that a great part of the expense in clothing a family of children can be saved by the use of these patterns, and the same is true for ladies who are in the habit of making their own garments. Besides, the explanations printed on the label accompanying each pattern are so plain that a mistake can never occur if attention is paid to them.
